INSTRUCTOR:
JOCELYN SLUKA is a full-time performer, workshop leader, and administrator for Friends of the Groom Theater Company. In her thirty-one years as a professional actor, singer, director, and acting coach, she has worked with a variety of regional and educational theaters, including the Hollywood Free Theatre, "The Stephen Foster Story," and in touring productions for US troops stationed in Germany. As a member of AFTRA, she appears in national and regional commercials and industrial films, as well as doing voice-over and print work. In the course of her career travels, she has reached audiences from California to Canterbury to Kamala. B.A. (Theater) UK

GUEST INSTRUCTOR:
TOM LONG is the director and founder of Friends of the Groom Theater Company with over 30 years of experience as an actor, teacher, and playwright. M.A. (Theater) UC

Class Description

Digging Deeper: Intermediate Acting

Tuesdays 7-8:30 p.m. (Ages 13 -18)
(Ages 11-12 by permission of instructor)

Through theater games, scene work and group exercises, students will learn how to bring honesty and their own unique gifts to the stage to create fully developed characters.

We'll use improvisation to stimulate the imagination, strengthen acting choices, and enhance stage presence; as well as partnering with other students to rehearse scenes to be presented at a final showcase.

Acting Up! Beginning Acting

Tuesdays 4-5:30 p.m. (Ages 9-12)

Students will learn the fundamentals of acting and knowledge of the stage through theatre games and ensemble exercises aimed at sharpening basic skills--concentration, movement, voice, characterization, and improvisation--as well as practical help with auditions and scripts. Students will present a short performance at the end of the session.

"Providing a fun, supportive environment where each student can 1) sharpen the talent necessary for artistic excellence, and 2) develop communication skills that will serve them through every facet of life.

HOMESCHOOLERS:

Are you interested in a daytime class during the week? If we get enough interest, we'll add a time slot just for you!
